

Rewiring

Rewiring, an audacious multi-county and multi-state collaborative, seeks to “rewire” the way child welfare is financed by showing how to dramatically reduce the number of children and families who become child welfare involved, and achieve better results for those who are child welfare involved.

Buy Better Outcomes

* Children's Home Society of America members